INCIDENT SUMMARY: According to Sheriff Jeffrey J. Murphy, Joseph Marr was arrested by the Washington County Sheriff's Office for the listed charges after he allegedly used the personal information of an acquaintance to have National Grid connect power to his former address on Hadlock Pond Road in Fort Ann.

Nicole Marr (Joseph's wife) was also arrested (for Conspiracy 5th only) for her part in this incident.

The Marr's used the identity of the acquaintance from April 29, 2015 through June 20, 2017 and incurred a National Grid bill of $2032.61 in the name of the acquaintance. The acquaintance had been incarcerated for the entire time and was not aware until he was released from prison and tried to have power connected

Joseph was arraigned at Central Arraignment and ROR'd. Nicole was released after getting an appearance ticket.
