

WASHINGTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

NEWS RELEASE

Law Enforcement Center
399 Broadway Fort Edward, New York 12828
Voice - 518-746-2475 | Fax 518-746-2483

Date of Incident: Sunday, July 29, 2018

Time of Incident:

Incident Location Sweet Road

Township: Argyle

Case # 2018-010243

INCIDENT SUMMARY: According to Sheriff Jeffrey J. Murphy, the Washington County Sheriff's Office is investigating a report of seven (7) cows stolen from a farm location in the Town of Argyle. Officers responded to Sweet Road on Sunday for the report. A farmer is leasing the property and farm area to house his own animals, as well as allowing other animals to be housed at that location.

On Sunday, July 29 the farmer noticed multiple cows missing. After further inspection, a total of seven cows were noted as missing. One of the cows missing is described as a show cow named "Roxy" and reportedly worth $30,000. The cows consist of different breeds including Holstein, Guernsey, and Jersey Cows.

If anyone has any information, or has noted suspicious activity in that area, please call the Washington County Sheriff's Office Anonymous Tip Line at 518-746-2522 or call 747-4623. Tips can also be sent online at this link - <http://ow.ly/fi0b30ldyFr>

Deputy Jen Noble and Sr. Inv. Kristen Hardy are handling the case.

"Roxy"